F. MARIAGGI, of Fort Saskatchewan, returned from Dawson City on Monday. Mr. Mariaggi left Edmonton with four or five others in July of '97, so that he has been absent about fourteen months. He left Dawson with the present month. He was only ten to fourteen days from Dawson to Victoria. THE Territorial elections are expected to take place in the latter half of October. Messrs. McCauley, Maloney and Tims, M. L. A.'s are all offering for re-election and are conducting an active campaign. Mr. McCauley proposes to hold meetings at Beaver Lake shortly.
Geo. McHugh, M. P., of Lindsay, Ont., for South Victoria, Ont., arrived on Monday. Mr. McHugh is making a tour of the Northwest and has already visited many important sections, including the Morden and Dauphin districts, of Manitoba, and Regina and Prince Albert, in the Territories. Unfortunately the weather during Mr. McHugh's visit to Edmonton was not such as enabled him to see the district to advantage. However, he had the pleasure of renewing acquaintance with a number of friends from Lindsay who are living in town and surrounding country, and who are well pleased with the opportunities and prospects. Mr. McHugh left for home on Wednesday.
R. V. HADLEY arrived from Fort Smith, on Great Slave river, on Monday. Mr. Hadley went north with the Holt party bound for the head of the Pelly by way of the Liard. The party went on from Fort Smith on Aug. 28th, at the same time that Mr. Hadley returned north. Coming up the river from McMurray the tracking line of the canoe of Mr. Hadley's party broke in Stony rapid. The canoe was upset and badly damaged and the contents lost. Fortunately the boat in which H. A. chief factors Camel and McKay were in was just ahead and the party came on with them. They were 13 days from McMurray to the Liard. Mr. Hadley reports that a number of prospecting parties remain at Great Slave lake for the rest of the season prospecting the galena finds there.
W. J. McLEAN, of the Yukon Valley prospecting and mining company of Chicago arrived from Great Slave lake on Wednesday. The party, known locally as the Willis party, has divided at Slave lake. Eleven members remaining there to look after the quartz claims taken by the company there and 20 have gone up the Liard. While the party was delayed at Resolution awaiting supplies. Mr. McLean made two excursions to the eastern part of the lake; and while he is somewhat reticent as to particulars, he is confident that he has made mineral discoveries of value, other than galena. Only one other party remains at Great Slave lake the rest having gone on to Peel river or up the Liard. There have been very few accidents and no sickness so far. Mr. McLean brings up a quantity of mineral specimens for assay.

THE ASSEMBLY.
Messrs. McCauley, Maloney and Tims, M. L. A.'s, returned from their attendance at the session of the Northwest assembly on Monday evening. The session was a most interesting one for a number of reasons. Amendments preliminary to the consolidation of the ordinances made the legislative work heavier than usual; the revenue to be dealt with was larger than ever before, the report on the administration of Northwest law in the Yukon was received from the special commissioner of the government; a redistribution bill increasing the representation was passed; and last but not least it was the session immediately preceding a general election. Business was concluded on Saturday, the 17th, but the formal prorogation did not take place until Monday. There was no evidence during session of an attempt or desire to divide the assembly on Dominion party lines; and the Hamilton-Ross government retained its hold upon the confidence of the assembly. Criticism was offered chiefly by Dr. Brett, Bauff and D. Mowat, Regina. The latter made a strong attempt at adverse criticism of the efforts of the government at improving communication between the Peace and Liard river regions; but the opposition was not general. Dr. Brett endorsed the expenditure, and the item in the estimates passed without a vote.
G. H. V. BULFEE, M. L. A., for South Qu'Appelle, and special commissioner to the Yukon, made a most interesting report on Saturday, the 17th. He specifically charged Major Walsh with having opposed him in every possible manner in his attempt to enforce the license law of the Northwest. Even after he had compelled the houses which were selling liquor contrary to law to refrain, Major Walsh took the trouble to inform them that he would uphold them in setting the law at defiance.
Lieutenant-Governor Cameron was compelled by ill-health to leave Regina for Ontario before the close of the session.
The three returned M. L. A.'s are all candidates for re-election.

ELECTORAL DIVISIONS.

The number of electoral districts in the Northwest Territories has been increased from 29 to 31. One new district given in Eastern Assiniboia and one in Northern Alberta. The new Assiniboia district is named Grenfell, and is chiefly cut out of the former Wolesey district. The North Alberta district is Wetaskiwin, formed principally from the former Red Deer district, but taking also part of Edmonton and Victoria.

The new Wetaskiwin district is bounded on the south by the south line of township 42, on the north by the north line of township 49, on the east by the east line of range 8, west 4th, and on the west by the British Columbia boundary. The south boundary crosses the C. & E. line at Morningside siding, about half way between Ponoka and Lacombe stations, and the north line crosses just north of Leduc station. The stations of Ponoka, Wetaskiwin and Leduc are in the new district and the eastern settlements of Red Deer lake, Battle river and Bittern lake.

Edmonton district is now bounded on the south by the south line of township 50, on the north by the central east-and-west line in township 53; on the east by the east line of range 8, west 4th, and on the west by the B. C. boundary. Leduc village and the southern part of the tributary settlement which was formerly in the Edmonton district, is now in the new district of Wetaskiwin. Ellerslie siding, Cooking lake and West and East Beaver lake are in Edmonton district. On the north boundary the three northerly tiers of sections in township 53, ranges 22, 23 and 24, which take in the northern part of Belmont and Clover Bar and the southern part of Agricola settlements are now cut off from Edmonton. And there is added the southern three tiers of sections in the same township in ranges 23 and west which include the northern part of Stony Plain settlement. Formerly the north boundary of Edmonton was the south line of township 53 easterly to range 24 and the north line of 53 in ranges 22, 23 and 24, making a jog of a township. Now both the north and south boundaries of the district are straight east-and-west lines.

St. Albert and Victoria districts occupy the part of Alberta north of Edmonton district. The boundary between them is the Saskatchewan river from the north boundary of Edmonton district to the line between ranges 20 and 21, west 4th meridian, thence north.

By the new arrangement St. Albert loses the three northern tiers of sections in township 53 in ranges 25 and west; and also the Lac la Biche settlement. It gains the three northern tiers of sections in township 53, range 24 and such of the same tier in range 23 as are north of the Saskatchewan river, being the northern part of Belmont settlement. Athabasca Landing remains a part of St. Albert district.

Victoria loses Battle river and Beaver lake settlements, and gains the Lac la Biche settlement and the northern three tiers of sections in township 53, range 22, and in range 23 south of the Saskatchewan river, being the southern part of Agricola and the northern part of Clover Bar settlements.

Red Deer district is now bounded on the south by the south line of township 34, on the north by the north line of township 41, on the east by the east line of range 11, and on the west by the B. C. boundary. Innisfail, Red Deer and Lacombe stations are in Red Deer, and the eastern settlements of Knee Hill and Buffalo lake.

McDOUGALL PASS.

H. Anthony, of Edmonton, writes at Porcupine river, under date of July 25th, 1898.

Thinking perhaps you might care for a little information re the McDougall pass route to the Yukon, I send you a description of the Rat river and summit, where there is really the only trouble and work.

The Peel river is left about 24 miles from the mouth, and 12 miles from Macpherson, for Huskie river (the westerly branch of the delta of Peel river) which we go down about 20 miles to the third mouth of Rat river. The Rat river for the first 30 miles is dead water, which is rowed. Then the water is swift and shallow, the river spreading out into many channels. Water swift and shallow to the canon, above which it gets deeper, but with larger stones. A few miles above the canon it gets shallow again, and continues so to the forks, which are about 15 miles from Summit lake. From the forks the river is shallow for about three miles; then deep to the lake. The portage is three-quarters of a mile long with no hills, but soft and mossy. There is also another portage of about 500 or 600 yards, which must be made in very low water. Four men with two small boats, say from 18 to 20 feet long, 36 inches on bottom, can easily come up Rat river with 2,000 to 2,400 pounds. They will have to double and lake one boat at a time in the rapids, which is the way we got up. It is slow work but dead sure. Quite a number of men turned back from above the 5th or 6th rapid, as their boats were too large. They went back to Macpherson and took the 90 mile portage to La Pierre's house. We hear that all of the new comers are taking the long portage; in fact we met some of them on Bell river. Even though Rat river should get too low to navigate, there is a much shorter portage than that the one they are all taking. For the first 30 miles of Rat river there is an amount of water. From there a portage can be made in three or four hours that cuts off about 12 miles of river, and from there I am certain it is not more than 25 miles to the forks. In all I think there would be a 30 mile portage, and the boats could be taken by river in four or five days, from the forks up the river is O. K. The river or creek running from the summit to Bell river is fairly good. Deep water most of the way with a very quiet stream; very little current. We rowed and sailed to the mouth (junction with Porcupine) in four days. The Porcupine is about the size of the Saskatchewan. In the Ramparts there are a few swift places; but as yet we have found nothing but what can be run with a raft. We calculate we are now about 40 miles from Fort Yukon, which place we should reach to-morrow. Capt. Segers' party are about five days ahead of us. Langworthy and two of his party are ahead. Geo. Purches, F. Jenner, A. S. Weekes and A. Schaefer, all of Edmonton, are with us. Pilon, E. St. Jean, Louis Lamoureux and Verro, are ahead of us. I send you a sketch of the Rat river and Summit lakes from the forks up. (The sketch accompanying is most interesting and valuable, but cannot be reproduced here.)

Another letter dated from Fort Yukon on August 3rd accompanies. This will be published later. The letter came out by way of Saint Michael's.

SPIRIT WRESTLERS.

Prince Hilkooff, Johann Ivin and Peter Muchatoff, immigration delegates of a persecuted religious sect in Russia, arrived on Monday, accompanied by Aylmer Maude, of Danbury, England, and C. Jones, of the immigration department, Winnipeg. The delegates are looking for a location for the immediate settlement of about 3,000 of their co-religionists, 1,100 of whom are permitted to leave Russia within the next few months, penalties being suspended for that period, and 2,200 who are now in a condition resembling slavery, imposed because of their religious views. They propose visiting the Beaver lake district and returning to the railway at Wetaskiwin. The emergency is so great that 200 workmen of the sect are now on their way out to Canada to erect dwellings to be occupied by their brethren and families when they arrive later in the season. The sect known as Doukhoborts, or spirit wrestlers, resemble the English quakers in their religious beliefs. It is because they dissent from the established Greek church and refuse military service that they are persecuted. The sect has been in existence since the last century, and now numbers about 7,500 souls; having been greatly reduced by deaths resulting from the harsh measures taken against them by the Russian authorities. They are located in several of the provinces of the Caucasus mountains. They are of Russian race. About 3,500 reside in the province of Kars. These are not in such distress as the others and do not need to remove as hurriedly. 1,100 have already gone to Cyprus from another district. 1,100 in the district of Elizavetpol are the ones who have permission to leave Russia at once. The remainder are scattered individually and by families amongst the wild tribes of the Caucasus, as a punishment, their property having been confiscated. They are said to be honest, industrious, thrifty and moral, and rapidly become prosperous whenever allowed the opportunity. They have the communal system. Mr. Maude, who was a merchant in Moscow, Russia, for many years, is in charge of the party from England. Prince Hilkooff is not a member of the sect, but belongs to another somewhat similar sect, for which offence he has been persecuted, and in finally exiled from Russia.

DAIRY NOTES.

C. Marker, manager of government creameries in Alberta, came in on Monday's train on an inspection trip. The make of the Alberta creameries is being sold chiefly in Kootenay and in the coast cities of British Columbia. The make up to August 1st is mostly disposed of at about 18c at Calgary. The August make is quoted at 19c to 20c. September make is quoted at 21c. The output of the creameries is greater than last year, although there has been considerable falling off in some quarters. It is the desire of the management to keep the creameries running as late in the season as possible so that patrons may get the advantage of the rising fall price for butter. Leduc skimming station shows the most satisfactory increase. In August this station handled 57,390 pounds of milk, which made 2,368 pounds of butter.

A private cheese factory which has been run successfully this season in the Clearwater settlement has shut down. The output was of excellent quality and realized about 13c on the local market.

Two cheese factories under private management have been running this season in the Tindastoll settlement, west of Innisfail.

The White Swan creamery near Bowden (private management) has been running successfully this summer. This creamery collected in the Olds district, as the Olds creamery (private) did not run this season.

The Poplar lake skimming station in connection with the Edmonton creamery was shut down for the season on Sept. 7th.

The Fort Saskatchewan skimming station has also been closed, but cream will be collected from the patrons for the rest of the season.

A DAW IN BORROWED FEATHERS.

Merchants, and consumers of butter, will doubtless be much interested in the facts recited in the following paragraph:

A merchant in a town in the Northwest Territories recently brought a 14 lb. pound box of fresh made butter from one of the Dominion government creameries. He shipped it by express to a customer in the Kootenay district. Shortly afterward, the merchant received a letter from the customer, expressing regret that the butter was not good, and stating that it was being returned, in order that the merchant might for himself judge of its quality, (or lack of it).

When the butter was received back by the merchant in the Northwest Territories, he, together with the government superintendent of creameries, the butter maker, and the agent of the express company, made an examination of it, and of the box containing it, with the result that the private marks on the box revealed the fact that that particular box had been packed at the government creamery in November, 1897; and that it had been shipped to Calgary and from thence to a firm in Vancouver in 1897.

The box returned by the customer, was, upon examination, found to be lined with blue tissue paper, and the butter it contained was quite stale, off-color and unevenly packed; while the rusty nail-holes in the lid and edges of the box showed plainly that the lid had been removed and re-nailed several times.

The merchant laid a complaint at the office of the express company and the case was taken up by the company. Their investigation resulted in a report that an exchange of boxes had taken place by mistake on a steamer carrying freight on one of the Kootenay lakes; and furthermore, that the box returned by the customer had been filled with dairy butter, presumably at the coast; and shipped to the Kootenay country, without any attempt to remove the brand of the government creamery. It is said that the butter was strong enough to come out and do that itself; but its character had also been spoiled in Vancouver cellars.—Com.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.

The Fort Saskatchewan rifle association will hold their annual fall meeting here on the 29th and 30th Sept, and 1st Oct. The prize lists will be got out shortly. There will be the usual ladies' match and this year every competitor will be allowed to shoot for four ladies. Chicken shooting commenced to-day. The birds in this vicinity seem to be scarcer than ever. Prairie fires have commenced here. Already there is a bad one burning within a couple of miles of the hamlet. 15, Sept., '98.

ANGUS RIDGE.

Wm. Thirk, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. Johnson Thirk, left for Edmonton on Monday. Mr. Thirk may settle in Alberta, as he likes the country. The attendance at the Battle river school is fair at present. Most of the older boys are busy at home. The weather has been all that could be desired for the crops this week. It would be a good idea to have Thanksgiving day in October this year instead of November. William Wilson tax-collector will soon be sending out his notices.

Squire Shantz visited the burg on Tuesday. Barley is an excellent crop in this district. A bi-weekly mail is required at Lewisville. Mrs. Griffin, who has charge of the office, is giving the best of satisfaction.

Globe correspondence: Mr. Coste and Major Talbot and Mrs. Corlandt Starnes, wife of Inspector Starnes, N. W. M. P., arrived last week by the Anglian from Teslin lake. They had been with Col. Evans and the 250 soldiers making the journey via the Stikine river. They report a very soft, muddy trail—no road whatever. They were 17 days going from Glenora to the head of Teslin lake. The wagon road which was said to exist there is a work of pure imagination. Most of the way lies over mountains or through swamps in which the pack animals sink to their shoulders, and have frequently to be unloaded and pulled out.

A Friend's Advice Leads to Health and Happiness.

Paine's Celery Compound Used by a Mother and Her Daughter.

Rheumatism, Nervousness and Kidney Disease Banished.

A LETTER THAT SHOULD INSPIRE HOPE.

A Guarantee of New Life to Every Sufferer.

WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.

Dear Sirs:—I think it a duty to write to you regarding the benefits derived by my daughter and myself from use of your Paine's Celery Compound.

For years I was troubled with rheumatism and nervousness. I was treated by doctors, and tried medicine after medicine without any good results. Fortunately a friend of mine advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound. I did so, and after using four bottles I found I was stronger and better than I had been for years. My daughter was cured of kidney disease after suffering for twelve years, by using a few bottles of Paine's Celery Compound. I advise all suffering from rheumatism, nervousness and kidney troubles to give the compound a trial.

Yours sincerely,
MRS. LOUIS LEFAVE,

FROM ST. JOHN.

J. McInnis returned from Peace river on Tuesday. Mr. McInnis went out with McFee's Northwest government exploring party. The party reached St. John Aug. 16th. They left for the Forks of the Nelson on the 22nd, and on the 25th when Mr. McInnis started back they were 55 miles north-west of St. John. They found the trail good so far. The distance from St. John to the Forks of the Nelson is estimated at 175 miles. Dupont's railway survey party left St. John for Findlay river Aug. 20th and Libbie's party left on Aug. 21st. Mr. McInnis confirms the report of carts having got through to St. John. Fifteen carts loaded with 400 to 600 lbs each and two wagons had reached St. John before McFee's party, also a Mr. Holden with a backboard.

BEAVER LAKE EAST.

At a meeting of the settlers in this statute labor district held on the 15th inst., John D. McAllister was appointed overseer and Jas. B. Steele auditor. Bishop Pinkham was out lately and held confirmation services at different points around the lake. Three candidates were confirmed here.

Barring the damage done by gophers the crops are pretty fair. Messrs. F. W. Fane and John D. McAllister have fields of wheat that will yield heavily, probably 45 bushels per acre.

Mr. Guy, late Presbyterian missionary here, is now probably hard at work in college. His successor, Mr. Hogg, of Manitoba college, is expected out towards the end of the month. Mr. Atkinson, C. of E. missionary, holds service regularly at 11 a. m., every Sunday, in the old land office.

Many of those who aided in turning out the late Dominion government were of the opinion that the reign of the C. P. R. would come to an abrupt termination when that was accomplished; likewise that an opposition line would traverse the Saskatchewan valley in a very short time. How their predictions have turned out, is patent to all. There seems to be lots of money and lands to give away, but not for the purpose of building lines to open up this glorious valley. I am no admirer of Yankee ways as a rule, but I do admire their policy of rushing in railways ahead of settlement. This has filled up the Western States to overflowing. In Canada the opposite is the case, the railways follow settlement, and follow so mightily slowly that settlers get bald-headed waiting for them.

A GALICIAN SERVICE.

Religious service for the special benefit of the Galicians in town was held in St. Joachim's Roman Catholic church on Sunday morning last. There was a large attendance of members of St. Joachim's congregation. The service was conducted by Rev. Paul Tymkivitch, priest of the United Greek Catholic church, and was according to the Greek rite. The service differs materially from that of the Roman Catholic church. The words are in the Little Russian language, which is the language of the people called Galicians, and the greater part of the service consists in singing by the members of the congregation. Those present commented most favorably on the pleasing nature of the singing, both as to melody and execution. It may be explained that there is in Galicia a branch of the Greek church which has united on certain conditions with the Roman Catholic church, acknowledging the Pope as the head of their church. At the same time their rites, and in almost all particulars their system of church government, are the same as those of the orthodox Greek church. Of the Galician immigrants in this district probably somewhat less than half belong to the United Greek Catholic church; the larger portion belonging to the orthodox Greek church, which acknowledges the Czar as the head of the church. The Rabbit Hill settlement of about 60 families are chiefly United Catholics and about 70 families of the Edna settlement. Between 200 and 300 families of the Edna settlement belong to the orthodox Greek church. Each branch is building a church in the Edna settlement.

What Users of Diamond Dyes Say.

Opinions Worth Considering by those Who Have Never Done Home Dyeing.

Mrs. N. Wood, Campbellford, Ont., says: "Having a carpet to make and a great deal of coloring to do, I thought I would give the Diamond Dyes a trial. I used them, and they produced most beautiful colors, and I was pleased with the effects in the carpet. I am a farmer's wife, and after this will use only the Diamond Dyes."

Mrs. M. R. Bell, Victoria Harbor, Ont., says: "I find great pleasure in dyeing with the wonderful Diamond Dyes. They make old clothes, dresses, silks, feathers and wool goods look as good as new."

Mrs. T. Spence, Emigrant Road, N. B., says: "I have used your Diamond Dyes for ten years for all coloring. I spin, weave cloth and dye all the clothes we wear for every day, besides making rugs and carpets."

Mrs. B. B. Tobin, Brandon, Man., says: "Diamond Dyes are used in our home every month for the coloring of dresses, ribbons, hose, etc., and they give the very best results. We save many dollars yearly by using your celebrated dyes."
